

INSTITUT
SIMONE DE BEAUVIOR
INSTITUTE
USEFUL INFORMATION

FEBRUARY 20, 1992

NOTE: Most items in this Bulletin are from the mail we receive on a regular basis. We simply pass this information along to you for your interest.

EVENTS, CONFERENCES, JOBS, NEWS OF INTEREST

Events

International Conference Series

The Office of the Vice-Rector, Academic and The Centre for International Academic Cooperation, in collaboration with the Loyola Peace Institute, invite you to attend the next conference on Thursday, March 5 at 18:00 in the Hall Building, Room 763. Dr. Michael Czerny, a founding member of the Jesuit Centre of Social Faith and Justice in Toronto will speak on "El Salvador: Is Development Another Form of War?" This title is an interesting contrast to Pope Paul VI's statement "Development is another name for Peace." Please call 848-4989 for further information.

NFB Benefits for International Women's Week

The National Film Board is celebrating International Women's Week with four evenings of videos with proceeds directed to four Montreal area groups. The Thursday, March 5 show will benefit the Centre for AIDS Services Montreal/Women; the Friday, March 6 profits will be directed to Head and Hands/ Young Parents' Program; proceeds for Saturday, March 7 will go to Auberge Transition and the Sunday, March 8 proceeds will be directed to The Montreal Sexual Assault Clinic. Call the NFB Cinema at 200 René Lévesque Blvd. W. at 283-4755 for information concerning film information and screening times.

Concordia Council on Student Life Awards

In order to recognize outstanding contributions to student life at Concordia, nominations are now being accepted for the following awards: Outstanding contribution awards, media awards and merit awards. You have until 17:00 on Friday, March 20 to nominate an award candidate. The awards ceremony is scheduled for Friday, April 3, 1992.

Lonergan University College hosts Keith Adams

You are cordially invited to Lonergan University College, on Wednesday, March 4 at 19:30 to hear classics graduate Keith Adams will give a talk on his Master's thesis, "Environment and Roman History." The Classics

The International Conference, "Consensus & Contestation: Dialogues" will be held in Montreal from March 5-8. Sponsored by the Simone de Beauvoir Institute, L'Institut Goethe, Conseil des arts du Canada, The British council, and others, please refer to the attached photocopy of programme information. Original brochures were placed in Institute mailboxes in January.

We have received information concerning the conference on "Women and Therapy: Healing and Social Change" which will be held May 7-9, 1992 at the University of Guelph. Guest speakers include Rosemary Brown, Sandra Butler, and Amy Rossiter. Registration is limited. Please consult the "Academic" board for program information.

On Saturday, February 29, York University will host a panel workshop on "The Margins of the Blackboard: Mainstreaming Lesbian Material." The keynote speaker is University of Maryland women's studies professor Minnie Bruce Pratt who is the author of Rebellion. Please call (416) 972-1134 for registration information.

We have received preliminary information concerning the Second Pan-Canadian Congress on the Rights of Lesbians and Gays which will be held in the fall of 1992. A list of proposed workshop themes is posted on the "Academic" board.

Jobs

Carleton University:

Department of Sociology and Anthropology, tenure-track Assistant Professor of Sociology.

Tenure-track Instructor or Assistant Professor of Japanese.

Tenure-track Assistant Professor in Film Studies.

School of Social Work, two tenure-track Assistant Professor level appointments.

Department of Psychology, tenure-track appointment in Human Experimental Psychology.

Institute of Political Economy invites applications from distinguished senior scholars to teach some aspect of political economy at the graduate level.

School of Computer Science, faculty position at Assistant or Associate Professor level.

PLEASE CONSULT "JOBS" BOARD FOR COMPLETE INFORMATION

The International Conference, "Consensus & Contestation: Dialogues" will be held in Montreal from March 5-8. Sponsored by the Simone de Beauvoir Institute, L'Institut Goethe, Conseil des arts du Canada, The British council, and others, please refer to the attached photocopy of programme information. Original brochures were placed in Institute mailboxes in January.

We have received information concerning the conference on "Women and Therapy: Healing and Social Change" which will be held May 7-9, 1992 at the University of Guelph. Guest speakers include Rosemary Brown, Sandra Butler, and Amy Rossiter. Registration is limited. Please consult the "Academic" board for program information.

On Saturday, February 29, York University will host a panel workshop on "The Margins of the Blackboard: Mainstreaming Lesbian Material." The keynote speaker is University of Maryland women's studies professor Minnie Bruce Pratt who is the author of Rebellion. Please call (416) 972-1134 for registration information.

We have received preliminary information concerning the Second Pan-Canadian Congress on the Rights of Lesbians and Gays which will be held in the fall of 1992. A list of proposed workshop themes is posted on the "Academic" board.

Jobs

Carleton University:

Department of Sociology and Anthropology, tenure-track Assistant Professor of Sociology.

Tenure-track Instructor or Assistant Professor of Japanese.

Tenure-track Assistant Professor in Film Studies.

School of Social Work, two tenure-track Assistant Professor level appointments.

Department of Psychology, tenure-track appointment in Human Experimental Psychology.

Institute of Political Economy invites applications from distinguished senior scholars to teach some aspect of political economy at the graduate level.

School of Computer Science, faculty position at Assistant or Associate Professor level.

PLEASE CONSULT "JOBS" BOARD FOR COMPLETE INFORMATION